PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Executive Production Manager and media entrepreneur with over 20 years' experience in the television industry in Greece, now based in Australia. Extensive background working across major networks and local and international production companies on morning talk shows, TV series, game shows, current affairs, lifestyle and reality productions, including Big Brother, Wheel of Fortune and Farmer Wants a Wife. Currently combines this Greek production expertise with business leadership in Australia as Director of MEPCO Pty Ltd and Owner of A Station TV, a digital online TV station, bridging television industry knowledge and connections across both Greece and Australia.

KEY SKILLS

- Production planning, budgeting and project accounting, including budget balance sheets, expense applications and cash returns
- Team leadership — managing, organising and coordinating production divisions and supervising production teams
- Strategic and operational decision-making in project preparation, set-up, development, execution and delivery
- Set construction, themed decoration, staffing, scheduling and post-production/editing coordination
- Contracting and management of freelance collaborators, suppliers and sponsors
- Location management (studio, outdoor and offsite) and venue rental
- Live broadcast and taped programme coordination, including green box operations
- Off-site production logistics: hospitality, transport, equipment and shoot supervision
